

UCL

UCL Laws Summer School

Curious about how AI is impacting the legal world? How companies are governed and balance profits with social and environmental responsibilities? How competition law maintains fair markets?

UCL Laws are offering Summer School courses in 2025 for students looking to gain a thorough introduction to key legal concepts and how they are applied practically.

Early bird rates apply until 31 December 2024. Register to attend!

